

Our DoDDS–Europe schools have a wide range of programs and services that are designed to help our students be successful. Education and the school experience in Europe is too important to approach without a comprehensive plan.

This plan should include rigorous courses, extracurricular activities, and goals for your child's future.

Our counselors are responsive and available to help parents and students build a plan for success.

See your counselor today. Your child's future depends on it.